Are there any other costs I should know about?

You may need to purchase a text book during the course. Your main source of material will be your lectures at the college and on line. These will form the basis of your own personal manual which will be yours and without equal. You will need a computer and access to a printer.

For your third year/clinical year you will need to have purchased your clinical equipment. You will be given a list of the equipment you will need during your second year. This equipment will be used long after you have graduated from our college.

Methods of payment:

Payments can be made directly into the college account by bank transfer. The account number, IBAN and BIC will be furnished on acceptance.

Payment can also be made via draft or cheque to the college director:

Alan Sheehy

White Lotus College

Dunmaniheen

Killorglin.

Co. Kerry.

All payments must arrive before the due date or an administrative fee of €50 per late payment will be incurred.

Unfortunately if a student is in payment arrears the college cannot allow the student to participate until the payment arrears and late payment fee is cleared.

Late applicants.

For those students accepted after the start of September, the first instalment must be paid prior to the start of the course.
